LIPE IS BRAUTIFUL. BY MRS. L. M. SIGOURNEY.

Life is beautiful—its duties
Cluster 'round each ssing day,
While their sweet and solemn voices Warn to watch—to work—to pray. They alone its blessings forfeit, Who by sin their spirit cheat, Or to slothful stupor yielding, Let the rust their armor eat.

Life is beautiful-affections Round its roots with arder cling.

Mid its opening blossoms neitle,
Birdlike in its branches sing, Smiling lull its cradle slumbers, Guard with pride its youthful bloom; Fendly kiss its snow-white temples, Dew its turf mound o'er its tomb.

Life is beautiful-with promise Of the joys that cannot fade. Life is tearful with the threatening Of an everlasting shade; May not thoughtless wanderer scorn it, Blindly lost in folly's maze; Duty, love, and hope acorn it, Let its latest breath be praise.

HAND IN HAND.

It is remarkable how abolition and secesson have gone hand in hand together ever since the war began, and how they are yet linked together. The main-stay of this wicked rebellion has been the hope of foreign intervention to the secession leaders: and now the main hope of the abolition-disunionists in perverting this war into an abolition crusade, is foreign interven-

At the close of the late abolition convenion in Boston, Wendell Phillips stated that if Abraham Lincoln did not issue a procla-mation within six months declaring freedom to the slaves, Louis Napoleon would do it, nd that, in such case, he (Phillips) would welcome foreign intervention. This now appears to be the main hope of the abolitionists. No severar denunciations of President Lincoln have been uttered than this club of Garrisonians uttered. One of the woman of this sort, in a speech at the convention, said that Abe Lincoln was as bad as Jeff. stitution—to destroy the Government itself, Davis. Garrison held there was some difference between the two-a choice of evils, and he chose the least; but Phillrps was on the side of the Woman, and promised emancipation soon, without foreign arms, but certainty, if the President declined, with

This is the old story. Let the ramment Abolitionists obtain possession of Southern plantations by confiscation, and before the lapse of ten years they would be found cracking the slave-driver's whip with a vigor astonishing to those born and regred in the midst of the institution. Transplant naries Summer to South Car becomes a rampant fire-eating pro-slavery disunionist. Transplant William L. Yan ey to Massachusetts and he becomes the most violent of Abolitionists. Each of these typical men may see in the other what he would have been with a transposition of education and circumstances.

> What is Real Estate!—A gentleman sold his farm to a neighbor, and shortly after. the former owner began to remove some manure which was there at the time of sale. To this the purchaser objected, claiming that the manure was a part of the real estate which he had bought. The matter in dispute was finally referred to the selectmen of the town, who decided that the manure was a part of the real estate. Of course this settled the matter, but the original owner desired the privilege of asking the referees a few questions, which was granted. He says to the selectmen:—

As an evidence of this we are told that at an immense mass meeting of the colored people of Chicago, held on the 21st ultimo, a resolution was unanimously adopted declaring that the abolition of slavery in the street, near Forney's drug store, and nearly Southern States will result in the general opposite Danner & Ziegler's store.

Gettysburg, March 20. migration of the colored people from the North to the South.

Now, this idea arises from a radical misconception of our system of government.— :As slavery is a State institution, dependent Union is eventually restored, what could or by letter. prevent the Southern States from re-enslaving the negroes? Not the Federal Government-unless by an usurpation of power which, would destroy the rights of the States, and render them all. North as power as well in their dome-tic concerns as in those specified in the Constitution. This would be the utter destruction of our-system of government, and instead of a restored Union, we would witness a revolutionized and arbitrary Government wielding unlimited powers. But the fallacy of the notion that the liberated slaves would or could remain South as freemen, is rendered still more conspicuous when we recollect that the Abolitionists, who use this argument to allow the apprehensions of Northern Laboring. Abolitionists, who use this argument to alloy the apprehensions of Northern laboring men, are incessantly demanding the armine of the slaves to fight against their masters. Does any sane man believe that if this programme is carried into execution the conquered white could even live in peace.

Life is beautiful—its duties Cluster 'round each ssing day, While their sweet and solemn voices

Warn to watch-to work-to pray. They alone its blessings forfeit. Who by sin their spirit cheat, Or to slothful stupor yielding, Let the rust their armor ext.

Life is beautiful-affections

Round its roots with ardor cling, Mid its opening blossoms nestle, Birdlike in its branches sing, Smiling full its cradle shumbers, Guard with pride its youthful bloom Fondly kiss its snow-white temples, Dewits tarf mound o'er its tomb.

HAND IN HAND.

It is remarkable how abolition and seceson have gone hand in hand together ever since the war began, and how they are yet linked together. The main stay of this wicked rebellion has been the hope of foreign intervention to the secession leaders; and now the main hope of the abolitiondisunionists in perverting this war into an abolition crusade, is foreign interven-

At the close of the late abolition convention in Boston, Wendell Phillips stated that if Abraham Lincoln did not issue a proclamation within six months declaring freedom to the slaves, Louis Napoleon would do it, and that, in such case, he (Phillips) would welcome foreign intervention. This now appears to be the main hope of the abolitionsts. No severer denunciations of President Lincoln have been uttered than this club f Garrisonians uttered. One of the woman of this sort, in a speech at the convention. said that Abe Lincoln was as bad as Jeff. Davis. Garrison held there was some difference between the two—a choice of evils. and he chose the least; but Phillips was on the side of the Woman, and promised emancipation soon, without foreign arms but certainty, if the President declined, with foreign arms. Thus aboliton and secession are invoking foreign intervention—the former to declare the slaves free—the latter to enable them to sustain their rebellion. Jacob Barker, of New Orleans, has hit the nail squarely on the head as to the feeling of the political powers both of England and France towards this country; both, says he, are "willing to see the present war continued, that the growing power they have so long dreaded may be broken to pieces, or so much exhausted as to be harmless."—Reading Gazette.

THE ONLY SAFE PATH.

The Hon. Amos Kendall, in denying that he ever approved of the emancipation course of Gen. Hunter, utters the following words of truth:

"There is but one safe course for the Government to pursue, and that is to disregard all party affiliations and adhere firmly to the programme originally announced, viz:
The prosecution of the war for the sole object of preserving the Constitution and the Union with the rights of States intact, to be followed by peace as soon as those objects can be attained. If there be not firmness enough in the Administration to do this, we are on a zea of revolution, with scarcely a hope of ever again

The matter in dispute was finally referred to the selectmen of the town, who decided that the manure was a part of the real estate. Of course this settled the matter, but the original owner desired the privilege of asking the referees a few questions, which was "What do you call a horse?" They replied:

Now, this idea arises from a radical misconception of our system of government.-As slavery is a State institution, dependent for its validity upon State law, the Federal slave States. Suppose that by virtue of a Union is eventually restored, what could prevent the Southern States from re-onlaving the negroes? Not the Federal Government—unless by an usurpation of power which would destroy the rights of; the States, and render them all, North as well as South, subservient to the central, Wm. B. This would be the utter destruction of our system of government, and instead of a restored Union, we would witness a revolu-! tionized and arbitrary Government wield-Ing unlimited powers.

Trees, some of the finest specimens that have ever been put on paper. The Fruit Trees are set with abundant burdens of fruit, similar to that which nature presents in proper season.

The trees are represented as having their roots running through the soil in a natural position, and the Engravings of Trees are beautiful and grand. It also contains a fine Engraving which represents the innumerable thread-like roots of a vigorous tree running through and over the soil. The Root Engraving covers ten inches in diameter on paper, and also forms a magnificent engraving, which cannot help but prove gratifying to the eyes of all who may behold it. Such an engraving has never been printed on paper before. The engraving of roots not only proves admirable to the sight of the eye, but is designed to prove of great importance to all who take an interest in the cultivation of fruits and how to treat fruit trees
